ELECTIONS COMMITTEE MEETING: 3/4/2018

Old Business

- Posed question from the “Believe” ticket: “What is the policy for food at tabling for campaigning?”
 - Decision - unanimous
 - During the campaign period as defined by the Elections Timeline, candidates, tickets, and parties will be allowed - if they so choose - to distribute food to constituents, but no other forms of “gifting”.
 - A gift will be defined as “any item given out that has a value beyond that of a campaign material as defined in section 704.4 of the Elections Code.”
 - A gift will include but is not limited to cups, t-shirts, or writing materials.
 - Gifts exclude stickers and buttons.

New Business

- Posed question from the “Deliver” ticket: “Can a political figure (in this case Governor Nathan Deal) be included in a campaign material (in this case a video)”
 - Decision - unanimous
 - The Elections Committee approves that a political figure may appear in a candidate, ticket, or party’s campaign material if an Official Endorsement Form signed by said figure has been turned in to the Elections Committee.
