

UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA

Student Government Association

Bill 31-01

A Bill Regarding a Transition Meeting for Senators

Authored by: Senator Max Sumner; Franklin College of Arts and Sciences

Sponsored by: Senator Anderson Felt; At-Large Senator, Senator Vinu Eranezhath; Franklin College of Arts and Sciences, Senator Huzefa Husain; College of Engineering, Senator Matthew McDaniel; Terry College of Business, Senator Nimisha Vasandani; College of Pharmacy,

CHAPTER 301: RESPONSIBILITIES

301.1 Senators shall attend all Senate meetings, Legislative committee meetings, University Council meetings, and any other mandatory event, as determined by the Student Government Association President, under the direction of the Student Government Association Vice President.

301.2 Senators shall uphold their taken oath and strive to fulfill their promises to the student body. Failure to do so shall result in an impeachment case brought by the Attorney General to the Supreme Court.

301.3 Senators shall abide by the Code of Ethics outlined in this document. Failure to do so shall result in an impeachment case brought by the Attorney General to the Supreme Court.

301.4 Senators shall complete the listed constituency requirements under the direction of the Vice President and President Pro Tempore. Failure to complete these constituency requirements shall result in an impeachment case brought by the Attorney General to the Supreme Court.

a. Each semester, Senators shall complete four total hours of promotional and outreach opportunities as defined by the Executive Board, and approved by the President Pro Tempore for any sponsored event, or an event with which SGA is partnered.

b. Each semester, Senators shall meet with their Dean a minimum of one time and all At-Large and Campus Life Senators shall meet with a minimum of six pre-approved student organizations at the discretion of the Vice President, under the direction of the President Pro-Tempore.

c. Each semester, Senators shall be required to attend [either] two of their college's functions, or three pre-approved university functions at the discretion of the Vice President, under the direction of the President Pro-Tempore.

301.5 Senators shall within a month of inauguration:

a. Hold a meeting with the newly elected senators for their respective seat. At this meeting, senators shall discuss the duties of a senators, unfinished business from the previous term, and any other pertinent information as decided by the outgoing senator. If a senator is re-elected to the same seat, they shall not be required to host said meeting.

b. Write a transition report detailing actions taken while in office as well as advice and unfinished business from the previous term.